CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Battling Nelson has decided to pass up the battle game for a while, and it is hardly likely that anyone will have a chance at the lightweight title the next ten or twelve weeks.

Nelson has been doing well as an attraction, and has received some flattering offers for vaudeville performances. He will be accompanied on his tour by Joe Galus and George Dixon, and in cities where ordinances permit he may meet some of the most intense in short bouts. The last fight at Kansas City was a fiasco, however.

Nelson's decision to sign up for the theatrical tour was only reached after he had refused to all propositions made to him for a fight in the near future.

It was learned that he had learned something from Kate Blakey Nolan's methods of management, even if he and his former bandler

KEYES SENDS GOODMAN TO

GOODMAN VS THE FLOOR

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Kid Goodman was spotted by Bert Keyes at the Fairmont A. C. in a situation tonight.

Keyes carried the fight to his opponent roughout, and Goodman was on the defensive after the first round, when Keyes slapped him to the floor with a right blow to the jaw. The Boston lad never entirely recovered from the punch, though he gave Keyes a few more than the first three rounds.
